KENTUCKY BOARD OF EDUCATION TO MEET

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The Kentucky Board of Education will meet next week for its annual retreat and regularly scheduled August meeting.

The retreat will begin at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, August 5 in the State Board Room on the first floor of the Capital Plaza Tower in Frankfort. The board will spend much of the morning in closed session with representatives of Greenwood/Asher and Associates, Inc., the firm hired to conduct the search for a new commissioner, reviewing commissioner applicants and discussing the appointment of an interim commissioner. Current Commissioner Terry Holliday is retiring August 31. A webcast of the meeting will begin once the board is back in open session, prior to taking action on the interim commissioner appointment. Information on how to access the webcast will be available on the Kentucky Department of Education website the morning of the meeting.

Later in the day, the board will review Kentucky's Equitable Access to Effective Educators Plan and Career and Technical Education (CTE) Funding Recommendations and is scheduled to discuss and take action on Kentucky Tech System Policies and Procedures.

That evening, the board will attend a celebration of Kentucky education progress and recognition of Commissioner Holliday's role in that progress at the Governor's Mansion. No board business will be conducted.

The regular Kentucky Board of Education meeting on August 6 begins with a meeting of the nominating committee, which will consider board leadership for the upcoming school year. The full board will meet starting at 8:30 a.m. and is scheduled to vote on the nominations for chair and vice-chair later in the morning.

During Thursday's meeting, the board is scheduled to take action on Next Generation Professionals accountability measures and consider the second reading of 702 KAR 1:170, School District Data Security and Breach Procedures.

Also, the board will hear updates on the 2016-18 Biennial Budget, the Professional Growth and Effectiveness System, and the Hope Street Group's efforts in Kentucky.

In addition, the board's management committee will meet.
